

The Diversity and Inclusion Scheme 2023 (DIS)
Application Guidance and Eligibility Criteria 2023

Application Guidance

1 Eligibility

Applicants must meet the eligibility criteria in order to be considered for DIS2023. Details of the eligibility criteria are set out below.

2 Scope

Applicants to the Diversity and Inclusion Scheme 2023 may apply to either study:

- LPC Courses:
 - The Legal Practice Course (LPC) – University of Law
 - The Legal Practice Course (LPC) combined with MSc in Law, Business and Management – University of Law
 - The Legal Practice Course (LPC) combined with LLM Legal Practice – University of Law

- SQE Courses:
 - LLM Legal Practice combined with SQE preparation course – University of Law
 - LLM in Legal Practice combined with SQE 1&2 preparation courses – The College of Legal Practice
 - SQE1 and/or SQE2 preparation course/s – The College of Legal Practice.

The fees for the LPC/LPC LLM/LPC Msc or the cost of the SQE preparation courses/SQE preparation courses combined with the LLM will be fully-funded by BLS Diversity and Inclusion Scheme Scholarship partners.

Please ensure you have considered both options and are familiar with the rules regarding these qualification routes.

Information can be found on the Solicitors Regulation Authority website <https://www.sra.org.uk/students/sqe/>

The scholarship shall be in respect of course fees only. Applicants must ensure they are able to meet all living costs for themselves (and any Dependents) during the period of study. Applicants are also responsible for any SQE exam fees as these are not included in the scholarship award.

Applicants must also meet the general admissions criteria for their preferred courses with either the University of Law or the College of Legal Practice. The application form will allow you to provide details of any extenuating circumstances if applicable.
