

Samantha Ingram is an Equity Director at Davisons Law, and also the Head of the Residential Property Department (Firm Wide). Samantha deals with all manner of Residential Conveyancing work including complex matters involving HMO's, High Rise Properties and Leasehold.

Located at Edgbaston, Samantha has worked at Davisons Law for 23 years and qualified as a Solicitor in 2006. She is Chair of the BLS Property and Planning Committee and served on the Committee for the last 6 years and has organised and contributed to a number of key Society events during that time. Samantha is keen to become more closely involved with the Society and play an active role in Council as well as more externally focused activities and events. This includes engaging with members and finding out more about what they want from the Society and what we offer as part of their membership and the benefits they gain from this.

In her spare time, Samantha enjoys horse riding, reading and is a Vice-Chair of Governors at a local Senior School.
