BIRMINGHAM LAW SOCIETY & THE LEGAL 500 : A GUIDE TO THE TOP WEST MIDLANDS LAW FIRMS

One of the major national legal publications of the year, The Legal 500, is distributed each Autumn. This important annual research charts the impact of the top legal firms in the UK and is widely regarded as one of the most important publications of its type.

The Birmingham Law Society is the largest and most prestigious Law Society outside of the capital and is a modern, dynamic organisation with a membership of around 5000 Lawyers, Solicitors and Barristers from all over Birmingham and the West Midlands.

The Birmingham Law Society and the publishers of the Society's membership magazine Bulletin, Fraser Urquhart Media have again joined forces with Legalese, the publishers of the Legal 500, to publish a special commemorative multipage magazine to review the Legal 500 2027 West Midlands rankings.

Fraser Urquhart Media is delighted to be publishing this, definitive guide to the West Midlands legal profession and the regions legal 'big hitters*' for the sixth year.

Distributed in line with the Winter 2026 editions of Bulletin - the official magazine of the Birmingham Law Society, the Legal 500 special edition will be exclusively sent to 8500 Legal Professionals across e-zine, social media and email platforms and once again, due to the incredible success of the previous publications, 2000 copies will be produced to be delivered to a hand-picked West Midlands B2B audience.
